

Addiction Therapist Interview Questions

1. Share an experience you had in dealing with a difficult person and how you handled the situation.
2. Tell me about the last time you counseled clients or patients, individually or in group sessions, to assist in overcoming dependencies, adjusting to life, or making changes.
3. Describe an experience when you developed client treatment plans based on research, clinical experience, and client histories.
4. Tell me how you organize, plan, and prioritize your work.
5. Give me an example of when you thought outside of the box. How did it help your employer?
6. Tell me about an experience in which you analyzed information and evaluated results to choose the best solution to a problem.
7. Would you consider analyzing data or information a strength? How so?
8. Share an example of a time you had to gather information from multiple sources. How did you determine which information was relevant?
9. Provide an example when you were able to prevent a problem because you foresaw the reaction of another person.
10. Please share an experience in which you presented to a group. What was the situation and how did it go?
11. Provide an example of a time when you were able to demonstrate excellent listening skills. What was the situation and outcome?
12. What are some long-range objectives that you developed in your last job? What did you do to achieve them?
13. Provide a time when you dealt calmly and effectively with a high-stress situation.
14. Name a time when your patience was tested. How did you keep your emotions in check?

Addiction Therapist Interview Questions

15. Share an example of when you went above and beyond the "call of duty". (Look for answers that show the candidate is dependable.)

16. Provide an experience in which you were sensitive to someone's needs or feelings. How did your helpfulness affect your work environment?

17. Name a time when you completed and maintained accurate records or reports regarding the patients' histories and progress, services provided, or other required information.

18. Describe a time when you successfully persuaded another person to change his/her way of thinking or behavior.

19. Please share with me an example of how you helped coach or mentor someone. What improvements did you see in the person's knowledge or skills?

20. How do you balance cooperation with others and independent thinking? Share an example. (Try to determine if the candidate has a cooperative attitude or is otherwise good-natured.)

21. In your opinion, how often should you participate in case conferences or staff meetings?

22. Share an example when you successfully conducted chemical dependency program orientation sessions.

23. In your experience, what is the key to developing a good team? (Look for how they build mutual trust, respect, and cooperation.)

24. Provide a time when you worked in a rapidly evolving workplace. How did you deal with the change? (Make sure the candidate is flexible.)

25. Walk me through how you would interview clients, review records, and confer with other professionals to evaluate individuals' mental and physical condition and to determine their suitability for participation in a specific program.

26. What factors do you consider when reviewing and evaluating clients' progress in relation to measurable goals described in treatment and care plans?

Addiction Therapist Interview Questions

27. What is the most challenging part of coordinating counseling efforts with mental health professionals or other health professionals, such as doctors, nurses, or social workers?

28. Tell me about the last time when you intervened as an advocate for clients or patients to resolve emergency problems in crisis situations.

29. Tell me about a time when you developed your own way of doing things or were self-motivated to finish an important task.

30. What kind of experience do you have coordinating activities with courts, probation officers, community services, or other post-treatment agencies?

31. Tell me how you would provide clients or family members with information about addiction issues and about available services or programs, making appropriate referrals when necessary.

32. Name a time when your creativity or alternative thinking solved a problem in your workplace.

33. Share a time when you willingly took on additional responsibilities or challenges. How did you successfully meet all of the demands of these responsibilities? (Make sure the candidate is a self-starter and can demonstrate some initiative.)

34. Provide an example of when you were persistent in the face of obstacles.

35. Describe ways you have found helpful to counsel family members to assist them in understanding, dealing with, and supporting clients or patients.

36. Provide an experience that demonstrates your ability to manage time effectively. What were the challenges and results?

37. When is the last time you developed, implemented, or evaluated public education, prevention, or health promotion programs, working in collaboration with organizations, institutions, or communities? Share an example.

Addiction Therapist Interview Questions

38. Please share an experience in which you successfully taught a difficult principle or concept. How were you able to be successful?

39. Share an example when you effectively supervised or directed other workers providing services to clients or patients.

40. What have you found to be the best way to act as liaisons between clients and medical staff?

41. Share an experience in which your willingness to lead or offer an opinion helped your company.

42. Describe an experience when you conferred with family members or others close to clients to keep them informed of treatment planning and progress.

43. Share an effective approach to follow progress of discharged patients to determine effectiveness of treatments.