

Machine Deburrer Interview Questions

1. Share an experience in which you've successfully learned how to handle a new piece of equipment?

--

2. Tell me about a recent experience you've had working with your hands.

--

3. Tell me about an experience in which you analyzed information and evaluated results to choose the best solution to a problem.

--

4. Describe methods you have found effective to inspect sample workpieces to verify conformance with specifications, using instruments such as gauges, micrometers, and dial indicators.

--

5. Walk me through how you would study blueprints, layouts or charts, and job orders for information on specifications and tooling instructions, and to determine material requirements and operational sequences.

--

6. How do you stay fit in order to perform physical activities that are required in the workplace?

--

7. Share an experience when you applied new technology or information in your job. How did it help your company?

--

8. What have you found to be the best system to start lath or turning machines and observe operations to ensure that specifications are met?

--

9. What is the most challenging part of adjusting machine controls and changing tool settings in order to keep dimensions within specified tolerances?

--

10. Share an experience in which your attention to detail and thoroughness had an impact on your last company.

--