

Health Service Worker Interview Questions

1. Share an effective method you have used to explain medical instructions to patients and family members.

--

2. Describe your experience exercising immobile and restricted mobility patients.

--

3. Provide an experience in which you effectively washed and dressed a patient who was unable to do so for himself.

--

4. Share your experience repositioning bedridden patients.

--

5. Share an experience in which you ensured that patients received appropriate diets.

--

6. Provide an effective method you have used to ensure patients take medications.

--

7. Describe your experience positioning patients for surgical preparation.

--

8. Share an experience in which your observation of a patient helped you to detect a symptom which required medical attention.

--

9. Provide an effective method you have used to gather information about patient condition, treatment plans, and appropriate activities.

--

10. Share an experience in which you effectively assisted a patient in eating.

--