

Infirmary Attendant Interview Questions

1. Share an effective method you have used to explain medical instructions to patients and family members.

2. Describe your experience exercising immobile and restricted mobility patients.

3. Provide an experience in which you effectively washed and dressed a patient who was unable to do so for himself.

4. Share your experience repositioning bedridden patients.

5. Share an experience in which you ensured that patients received appropriate diets.

6. Provide an effective method you have used to ensure patients take medications.

7. Describe your experience positioning patients for surgical preparation.

8. Share an experience in which your observation of a patient helped you to detect a symptom which required medical attention.

9. Provide an effective method you have used to gather information about patient condition, treatment plans, and appropriate activities.

10. Share an experience in which you effectively assisted a patient in eating.