

Worksite Wellness Practitioner Interview Questions

1. Tell me about the last time you tracked attendance, participation, or performance data at a wellness event.

2. Share an experience in which you provided individual assistance with wellness or nutrition.

3. Provide a time when the maintenance of equipment helped your company.

4. Describe a marketing campaign you successfully developed. How did the campaign promote a healthy lifestyle or participation in a program?

5. Share an experience in which you conducted a survey which helped you improve a fitness program.

6. Share an experience in which you taught a class in which you noticed an improvement in the strength, flexibility, or cardiovascular conditioning of the participants.

7. Share an experience in which you successfully selected and/or supervised a contractor.

8. What methods have you found effective in responding to requests for information about wellness programs and services?

9. Tell me about a new program you approved. What methods did you use to determine its effectiveness?

10. Tell me about the last budget you prepared and/or implemented.